

"Our Town"
J. B. WHITE

Life has many emotions and man's history records them in the order of their importance. Each age has sung anew the old story of "The Men and His Dog." Dependence of the weak upon the strong has no parallel in its appeal to sentiment. God forbid a day when a dog may fail to inspire in every honest man's heart the ennobling sentiment that makes us struggle to put away tears when they lie dead at your feet, their spirit unexplained in the confusion of lasting impressions of a soft nose that loved you and eyes that mirrored loyalty and feeling deeper than we want to remember.

Here is a letter written by Rush A. Thomas to his daughter, Viola, recently, after their dog had been killed. This letter rates a place in my scrap book along with a choice collection of sentiment:

"There is grief on country club hill for a tragedy has happened since you left home last Sunday.

"Some other man wrote 'That man's best friend was his dog and under all conditions he remains true to his master.'"

Our black dog, Prieto, is no more, he was not to blame. I am the guilty one. He was to the last doing me honor and as always paying loyalty to his master. Yes, Prieto is dead and I am to blame. My loyalty was not as great as his. He trusted me and I was weighed in the balance and found wanting. Tears, regret and remorse is with me today. Penitence, regret and remorse is a terrible burden.

Everyday, yes three times a day and again at ten to eleven o'clock at night he paid me honor, for he was always there to meet me, to guard and protect me from the drive way to the front door and all he asked was a pat on the head, a kind word with a plea from out his eyes to let him in by the fireside—not to get warm but to be near his master.

"The day or night was never too cold or dreary, sunshine or rain, stormy or fair, he was there to greet me, to be near me. None other in all this world did me such honor, in his eyes I was king among kings.

"He did not know my faults or frailties and even should he have known, his loyalty would have been the same. The ground as it was, covered with snow, yet true to his master he was out to greet me. His eyes would sparkle, his tail would wag in all his true sincerity. Steadfast and true.

"I should have been more true to him, I should have learned some of his loyalty, more kind words should have been spoken, more often should I have let him in by the fireside, should I have been as true as he the automobile would have never crushed his tender body. He thought he could trust me and I failed him.

"Yes, tears, regret, remorse and I am penitent today, but too late—'Twas ever thus from childhood hours

When I have seen my fondest hopes decay,
I never loved a dog, a tree or flower
But what was first to fade away."

EMERGENCY CROP LOANS ARE NOW BEING MADE

Loans to farmers to finance production of 1944 crops are now being made by the Emergency Crop Loan Division of the Farm Credit Administration, according to Eric E. Brown, Field Supervisor for this county. Applications are being received at Chamber of Commerce, Cameron.

These loans, usually known as "the seed loans," have been made in this county by the government for many years and have proved a great benefit to farmers of limited collateral whose cash requirements are small. The maximum loan to an individual is $400. The advances cover the cost of seed, fertilizer, feed, fuel oil and supplies. Farmers who can secure loans from banks or other sources are not eligible for "the seed loans."

As in the past, borrowers will be required to plant a large garden for home use and a balanced crop program will be encouraged.

RED CROSS WORKERS ASSIGNED HERE MONDAY

Workers in the Red Cross War Fund Drive held an inspiration meeting Monday morning at Cato's Cafe and heard reports on the work of the organization at home and abroad.

Chas. M. Hicks who led the War Bond drive in the county, was named director for the Red Cross appeal in the city.

Mrs. W. R. Newton, Sr., whose son Lieut. Frank M. Newton is a prisoner of war in Germany, gave an impressive account of how the Red Cross functions in enemy countries. It was a stirring challenge for support of the war drive.

Dr. James Watson, chairman of the Home Service section of the Red Cross, gave a report with an appeal for contributions in the current drive.

F. G. Blake, chairman for the Red Cross War Fund campaign in the county made a plea for support of the war fund drive for the Red Cross. He has one son Lieut. Gene Blake, now in Italy and another son Chas. Blake of Hearne who is soon to report to the navy. In addition 16 employees of the Coca-Cola Plant are now in service. Lieut. Blake in Italy has never seen his 10 months old son, Glenn, born after he went overseas.

Oxshier Smith, President of the Citizens National Bank, a large contributor to the current war fund of the Red Cross, made an inspirational address which was a plea for support.

Cameron's quota is about double that of 1943, and in the county more than $14,000 must be raised. The Cameron quota should and will be easily raised.

WILLIS HARMON BURIED IN CAMERON THURSDAY

Willis Harmon, 84, the son of a slave, and the oldest resident who was born in Cameron, is dead.

Funeral services for Harmon were held at 3 p. m. Thursday afternoon, March 9, 1944, at the colored Baptist Church with his pastor, Rev. P. R. Humber, conducting the services. Interment was made in the colored cemetery in Cameron. Rev. Johnson, another pastor, colored, in Cameron, assisted in the services.

Harmon died Wednesday, March 8, 1944. His father the late, Ike Harmon was a slave and was owned by the Harmon family, the forebears of Mrs. Hallie Wofford now living in Cameron. Harmon was born in the city in a home which was built on or near the site of the Matula marble yard. He had spent his entire life in Cameron.

A large number of white residents went to the church for the funeral service to hear Rev. Humber extol the pioneer who lived to influence his people and to serve well his day and generation.

The funeral services heard many testimonials read, some from out of the city, all praising the life of Willis Harmon who was born here on September 25, 1859. A number of talks were made by friends both white and colored touching upon the life of deceased.

In the early days of Cameron when the city was without electric power Willis Harmon was employed by the Cameron Herald. His job was to turn the press and in this primitive way the paper was issued to its readers. The first power to run a cylinder press at the Herald plant was generated from steam to a early model engine.

Harmon is survived by a number of children. His wife died some years ago. Eighteen grand children and 12 great grand children survive.

DR. NEWTON CASE REVERSED AT AUSTIN

Appeal Court Rejects Dr. Hunt Testimony That He Identified Newtons At Scene of Shooting; Hearsay Evidence Figures in Reversal of Case

Austin, March 14.—The conviction and seven year sentence assessed Dr. W. R. Newton of Cameron for the May 21, 1942, attempt on the life of Dr. Roy Hunt of Littlefield was reversed and remanded Wednesday by the Court of Criminal Appeals.

In sending the case back to Lamb County district court for a new trial the appellate court said the lower court on first trial admitted improper testimony.

The testimony was that given by friends of Doctor and Mrs. Hunt who were guests at the Hunt home on the night of May 20 when, Doctor Hunt testified, he received three telephone calls from a person he identified as Mrs. Newton, wife of Doctor Newton.

The opinion said there was sharp issue as to whether Doctor Hunt was correct in identifying the Newtons, whose trial testimony was that they were not in Littlefield but in Houston on the night Doctor Hunt was shot.

Mrs. Newton also was indicted with her husband but has not been tried.

In October, 1943, Dr. and Mrs. Hunt were slain in their home. A convict is being held for questioning in the slaying of the Hunts.

The guests of the Hunts on the night of May 20 testified Doctor Hunt told them he had received three phone calls that evening from a person whose voice he identified as Mrs. Newton's. This testimony was introduced over objection of the defense during the trial.

The appellate court said Doctor Hunt was positive and unequivocal in identifying Doctor Newton and his wife and other witnesses identified Mrs. Newton as the party who made a telephone call from a Littlefield service station about midnight May 20.

The court said the issue of fact on appeal was whether Mrs. Newton was the party she represented herself to be and the question of law was on the admissibility of testimony reflected by objections of the defense in light of the issue of fact.

It was Doctor Hunt's trial testimony that he was called to the outskirts of Littlefield at midnight by Mrs. Newton as a result of the phone calls.

About three miles from town he saw a parked car and Mrs. Newton was sitting in it, he said. She asked him to get into the car and as he did Doctor Newton came from a pit at the side of the road and began shouting, Doctor Hunt testified. The wounded physician escaped by crawling through a field.

The Littlefield physician testified further that he and Doctor Newton were medical school classmates; that when he was an interne at Jefferson Davis Hospital, Houston, in 1935, Mrs. Newton then unmarried, was a nurse there and that the two were friends. Doctor Hunt's wife also was a nurse there. According to Doctor Hunt's testimony, he had not seen Doctor Newton since 1933 and Mrs. Newton since 1935.

The court conceded that was permissible to prove that Mrs. Newton was in Littlefield the night of the shooting, but questioned whether the evidence actually received was proper for that purpose. The opinion, by Judge Thomas L. Beauchamp, added:

"A conversation had between Doctor Hunt and his guests in the absence of the appellant ordinarily could bear no relationship to the guilt or innocence of the appellant.

"If the party making the call were some other person representing herself to be Mrs. Newton and had successfully created the impression on Doctor Hunt the things would have occurred in the Hunt home in the same way they would have had it in fact been Mrs. Newton."

Local and state officers, meanwhile, continued their investigations of the slaying of Doctor and Mrs. Hunt. Recently an attempt to locate a pistol which might throw light on the mystery came to nothing.

The suave, middle-aged convict held for questioning denied knowledge of the slayings, and has stood firm in his denials. The suspect was arrested in Galveston.

Soon after Doctor and Mrs. Hunt were found dead at Littlefield, their bodies blood-soaked and bound, the suspect dictated a statement of his activities. Then he refused to sign the statement.

Doctor Hunt and his wife were bound by ropes and wires to their bed, and were beaten and shot to death.

NEW TRIAL ORDERED IN DECISION TODAY

The Court of Criminal Appeals for the State of Texas at Austin early Wednesday reversed and remanded for new trial the case of Dr. W. R. Newton who was convicted at Olton in Lamb county in August 1943, on a charge of assault with intent to murder the late Dr. Roy Hunt of Littlefield.

The case was reversed on errors in the trial and will be sent back to the jurisdiction of the court of Judge Russell at Olton. Recently Mrs. Newton, charged jointly in the alleged shooting, was given a change of venue and her case transferred to Plainview.

The case against Dr. Newton followed the shooting of Dr. Hunt near Littlefield around midnight of May 21, 1942. In the trial at Olton in August 1943, both Dr. Newton and Dr. Hunt testified that neither knew of any reason why such a shooting should occur. Dr. Newton was convicted and given a seven year sentence.

The record in the trial court discloses that 16 witnesses testified that Dr. Newton was in Cameron and Caldwell on the night Dr. Hunt was alleged to have been shot near Littlefield. Two witnesses who were to testify that Dr. and Mrs. Newton were in Houston later on the night of May 21, 1942 were not available at the time the court ordered the case to

RED ARMY LAUNCHES NEW UKRAINE DRIVE

A new Russian offensive westward from Krivoy Rog in the southern Ukraine has plunged forward up to 37 miles in four days along a 105 mile front, premier Joseph Stalin announced last night, while other Soviet forces in the southwest Ukraine captured the important German base of Staro-Konstantinov.

The new push was pointed at the Nazi-held cities of Kherson and Nikolaev on the Black Sea and threatened to isolate several hundred thousand of Hitler's troops. Already, Stalin said in an order of the day, the offensive has inflicted a "heavy defeat" on nine German divisions.

The onslaught, in preparation since the Russians captured Krivoy Rog on Feb. 22, was declared to have engulfed more than 200 localities.

In addition to seizing Staro-Konstantinov, Marshal Zhukov's first Ukrainian army was reported fighting in the suburbs of the historic city of Tarnopol, in pre-war Poland, on the Odessa-Lwow railway 72 miles southeast of Lwow.

Berlin's fighter defenses were reported much weakened as the American Eighth air force's Flying Fortresses and Liberators poured explosives and incendiaries on the German capital for the fourth time in six days.

Seven bombers and one fighter failed to return from the 1,200 mile mission, contrasted to a record loss of 68 bombers and 11 fighters Monday. A communique said the swarms of Allied fighters escorting the bombers yesterday "reported no opposition from enemy aircraft." Not a single German plane was reported shot down.

REDS ENTER TARNOPOL IN NEW BATTLE THRUST

A third great Russian offensive in the Ukraine was unveiled last night by Marshal Stalin—a southward drive below Kiev that in five bloody days had torn a 150-mile wide gap in German defenses, killed more than 20,000 Nazis and captured 300 populated places, including the pivotal base of Uman, some 160 miles north of Odessa.

Stalin said this Russian force which set ablaze the entire southern Russian front along a 500-mile curving battleline extended into pre-war Poland, had advanced from 25 to 44 miles in the direction of Rumania and had captured 1,100 German tanks and big guns. More than 100,000 Nazis were reported reeling back before the latest Soviet blow, which was directed by newly-promoted Marshal Ivan S. Konev. Deep, clinging mud in the Ukraine made it difficult for the Germans to save their heavy equipment.

Russian forces were declared fighting through the streets of Tarnopol, strategic railway city on the approaches to Lwow in pre-war Poland. America's Britain-based bomber fleet let up on Berlin for a day while camera planes assessed the damage done to the German capital in the past week, but medium bombers of the American Mediterranean command stacked additional wreckage in Rome's railroad yards.

Capt. Walker Mahurin, leading U. S. fighter pilot in the European theater with 20 victories, told correspondents: "give us 15 more good days when we can get the jerries up and I think it will mean the war is won as far as the luftwaffe is concerned. We definitely have superiority now."

let's bury this myth
"Coffee makes me nervous"

For one thing, don't mistake a nice, big fat tantrum for "nervousness." Actually, coffee soothes frazzled nerves by sharpening the senses and aiding as a gastric tonic. It's the mainstay of men under battle stress... first thought at big fires and disasters. So when your nerves feel like they've been shredded with fishhooks, look deeper for the cause. Drink coffee, don't blame it. Drink Admiration Coffee, a blend of the choicest, most enjoyable coffees grown. Its rich, delightful flavor picks you up. Its room-pervading aroma will thrill you.

Admiration Coffee

1. "Tonight of all nights, Mother, when I wanted to look radiant and beautiful! Here I am, my nerves on edge. Oh, why did I drink that coffee! It always makes me jittery."

2. "Fiddle-faddle, child. It's you, not coffee. I've drunk it for thirty years. And there isn't a calmer set of nerves in town. Coffee soothes. It doesn't cause jitters."

3. Off to the party—wiser, lovelier and more beautiful. After legs become dance-weary and "the gang" devours coffee and doughnuts at some late spot, "nervousness" soon vanishes.

HOME-FRONT PILOT...

Boy with a Kite

This spring it is more important than ever before that youngsters fly their kites away from electric lines... because, not only will this keep kite-flying a SAFE sport, but also, it will help in the war effort by preventing accidents and by helping to prevent unnecessary interruptions in electric power service.

In flying your kite, be a home-front pilot and always remember to observe these safety rules:

1. Fly your kite in open spaces... free from electric service lines.
2. Do not use metal or wire in your kite or kite strings.
3. If your kite should get tangled in electric wires, do not climb the pole or try to get the kite loose with a pole or stick. Call your electric service company!

DR. NEWTON

proceed and therefore did not testify.

The bill of exceptions by Attorneys for Dr. Newton included a large number of claims to irregularities in the trial and in the arguments made before the court at Austin the defense counsel stressed these and other circumstances to prove that Dr. Newton was not fairly tried. Attorneys for Dr. Newton are Camp & Camp of Cameron and Rockdale, and R. M. Lyles of Angleton.

Reversal of the case was regarded as just as the record was held to contain errors committed in the trial. Emory B. Camp, attorney, in Cameron was gratified over the reversal but made no comment.

The case against Dr. Newton has been more or less vague since the beginning. The evidence in the trial at Olton did not produce clarification as may be reasoned now that the case has been reversed and ordered for new trial.

Since the case of Mrs. Newton has been transferred to Plainview, a court over which Judge Russell also presides, it was presumed here that the judge might also grant a change of venue for Dr. Newton when the new trial is held.

In October of 1943, Dr. Roy Hunt and Mrs. Hunt were found slain in bed at their home in Littlefield. Since that time two other murders have occurred in that section but so far no charges have been filed either in murder of Dr. and Mrs. Hunt, the slaying of two aged women at Brownfield or the more recent murder of a 38 year old mother and her 11 year old daughter by poison. A former inmate of a state institution was arrested in connection with the beating to death of the two aged women in January of this year but no arrests have been made in the subsequent slaying of the mother and daughter near Brownfield.

A Texas convict who was on parole has been held in connection with the slaying of Dr. and Mrs. Hunt but no charges have been filed. Two weeks ago Texas Rangers and local officers at Lubbock announced that a man had made a statement he had grown panicky after the report of the finding of the bodies of Dr. and Mrs. Hunt and had driven out on the highway leading to Amarillo and thrown a pistol into the Canadian River. A day or so later another man, according to officers, said he had driven out the highway with the first man who made a statement about the gun and witnessed the tossing of the pistol into the water.

The current of the river was then diverted but no gun was found. Later it was said that a powerful magnet was being used and hopes were slim that a gun would be found due to sand seepage into the pool.

Some time prior to the murder of Dr. and Mrs. Hunt a number of robberies were committed in the city of Lubbock in which the victims were tied up in the same manner as were the bodies of Dr. Hunt and wife when found in the bed at their home in Littlefield. No arrests have been made nor charges filed in any of the robbery cases in Lubbock.

If a second trial of Dr. Newton is held, there was no indication what date may be set as the court at Plainview was not in session but may be in session in May.

Dry Petition Found Sufficient in Number Names; Court Listens

Representatives from both sides in the newly revived prohibition crusade were before the Commissioners Court Thursday because a petition had been filed calling for an election in Milam county.

The petition filed by the dries, it was disclosed at the office of Homer Nabours, County Clerk, has a sufficient number of signatures. Under a new law the county clerk must check the petition and report whether all names are qualified voters.

The Court will set the date for the election, if ordered. There appeared no reason to doubt the election will be called soon and would be held in advance of the primaries this summer.

The wets were protesting the petition and the election while the dries called for a vote.

"Destination Tokyo" Opens At Cameron; Is Thrilling War Drama

"Destination Tokyo," a picture that made us want to take a periscope trip to Japan and throw our bombs, opened today at the Cameron.

The new Warner Bros. film, which stars Cary Grant and John Garfield, tells the story of an American submarine, the U. S. S. Copperfin, operating against Japan, and of the men aboard her. The film features Dane Clark, Robert Hutton and Warner Anderson.

During production, the set "Destination Tokyo" was closed as tight as a gunning tower against any and all visitors and just what prodigies Mr. Grant, as commander of the "Copperfin" performed in his undersea craft, could not be revealed until the Navy said it was all right to release the picture. The chief theme of "Destination Tokyo" is the part played by the Copperfin in sending aircraft-based bombers winging their way to Tokyo's home town.

For this reason, Cary Grant, John Garfield, John Ridgely and other members of the cast, all male, were under constant surveillance. The script was as secret as a military message.

Serving as technical advisor for the film was Commander Dudley Walker Morton, sub captain who at the time had just returned from a patrol on which he put 20 Japs ships under the water, blew up a Jap submarine, and destroyed an unannounced number of enemy fighting craft. For these exploits he received a Distinguished Service Cross from General MacArthur, the Navy Cross with two stars, and a Presidential Citation.

Mrs. Madara Letcher of Houston, who suffered a broken arm from an accidental fall over a month ago, is reported as improving. She is an aunt of Miss Aetna Smith and Oxsheer Smith and Mrs. Rush A. Thomas, and has visited here many times where she has many old time friends.

Mrs. W. L. Tucker of Tracy is in the Cameron Hospital.

Mrs. James Greer of Temple spent the week end with relatives and friends in Cameron. She is the former Naomi Harper.

Hopalong Cassidy Is Back At Milam In New Film "False Colors"

The latest in the thrilling series of Hopalong Cassidy adventure films, "False Colors," galloped into the Milam Theatre today thru United Artists release. Bill Boyd, who has won his spurs literally as well as figuratively in the popular role of Hoppy, has a new, romantic sidekick in this film. He is none other than Jimmy Rogers, son of the famous Will. Judging from Jimmy's initial appearance in this series, he'll be riding trail with Hoppy for quite a while to come.

There's plenty of hard riding and hard fighting in "False Colors," as well as a generous bit of romance. The story concerns the Diamond Hitch Ranch of Poncho, a two-thirds share of which has been willed to Hoppy and his two pals, California (Andy Clyde) and Jimmy (Jimmy Rogers) by a cowhand named Bud Lawton. The other third belongs to Faith Lawton (Claudia Drake) whose stepbrother, whom she hasn't seen since childhood, arrives just before Hoppy does to claim his two-thirds. Knowing that the real Bud Lawton is dead, Hoppy proceeds to unravel the mystery involving this impersonator.

Bill Boyd is once again the fascinating sleuth fans have come to know and like so well, and his supporting cast, headed by Jimmy Rogers, Andy Clyde, Claudia Drake, Douglas Dumbrille and Tom Seidel, all help to make this one of the best westerns yet produced by Harry Sherman. As usual, the photography is something to catch the eye of all camera-fans.

HELP YOUR COMMUNITY DRIVES ...and You Help America

In Colonial days when a family faced misfortune, kindly neighbors set up a melting pot before the door. The community was quick to contribute, because lean and perilous years taught our forefathers that only by helping one another could all survive and earn security in a land of growing opportunities.

Today, when this hard-won security is in jeopardy, our country and many of its citizens need a helping hand. The Red Cross, the War Chest, the scrap and salvage drives and other calls on each community are realistic reminders of the pioneer spirit that bound our nation together... that gave us the highest standard of living the world has ever known. When we help our neighbors we help our country.

In every community, Budweiser is known as the Perfect Host to a host of friends. To serve your neighbors beer is simple hospitality, but to serve them Budweiser is a gracious compliment... and, it makes your simple wartime meals taste better.

PRECAUTIONS LISTED IN KITE FLYING HERE

With the approach of spring, youngsters are beginning to answer the urge to fly kites, said J. Albert Young, district manager of the Texas Power & Light Company. He said that in wartime, it is patriotic as well as wise for kite-flyers to exercise special care and emphasized that precautions should be taken in the popular springtime sport.

Chief among these is to fly kites in open spaces where there are no electric power lines. Kites which fall across, or become entangled in, power lines endanger the continuity of electric service to industries which may be engaged in the production of vital materials needed in the war effort.

Another precaution is to use no kites which contain metal or string with wire in it, since metal is a conductor of electricity.

Flying kites in the rain is also considered hazardous since a wet kite string is also a conductor.

As a fourth precaution the kite-flyer should not attempt to disentangle any kite that should fall on an electric line. The electric service company will send a trained man to remove the kite.

22,000 GERMANS LOST IN KHERSON DISASTER

German forces in the southern Ukraine suffered another disaster yesterday when, by Soviet announcement, they lost the big Black sea port of Kherson along with 22,500 men and enormous stores of supplies and equipment to a Russian army that drove down the western bank of the lower Dnieper river.

With Kherson's fall after fierce street fighting, Nazi troops at last were cleared from the entire stretch of the Dnieper except at its extreme northern reaches.

Kherson is but 17 miles from the wide Dnieper estuary that also serves the port of Nikolaev before flooding into the Black sea. It is only 90 miles from the great port of Odessa.

Along the entire blazing Ukrainian front, extending deep in pre-war Poland, Soviet forces were reported hammering forward toward the Rumanian frontier, sweeping up hundreds of villages.

Russia was said to have informed Finland it was unable to accept the latter's counter-peace proposals in their present form, but the door appeared to have been left open to further negotiations. U. S. newspapermen visited Helsinki for the first time in many months and described the Finnish capital as very depressed, almost ghost town.

It was expected in London that the British government shortly would close the 200 mile boundary between Eire and northern Ireland, thus boarding up the "window" through which Axis agents are believed to have been spying on Allied invasion preparations. Travel between England and Ireland virtually was suspended Sunday.

Mrs. A. C. Black of San Antonio has been visiting in the home of her son, Carl Black and family for the past few days.

Rita Hertenburger of Ad Hall was a Cameron visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Ike Looney, 91 Observes Birthday In Cameron March 13

Mrs. Ike Looney of Ben Arnold, observed her 91st birthday quietly in the home of her daughter and son in law, Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Taylor in Cameron, Monday, March 13th.

Mrs. Looney was born in Alabama and came to Texas when a small girl with her parents, in a covered wagon, and has lived in Milam County for more than 78 years. Her late husband was representative from Milam county for several years. She lives quietly in her home at Ben Arnold where she has lived for many years, and has a man and wife who live in the home with her. She looks after her home in many ways, and last year was active in canning and preserving fruits and vegetables raised on her place near Rosebud. She has many friends in Cameron and over the county who wish for her many happy returns of the day.

LEGION BIRTHDAY TO BE OBSERVED TONIGHT

(From Tuesday's Daily)

The birthday of the American Legion will be observed in Cameron tonight, with a supper, barbecue and program at USO hall.

Included among the guest speakers will be a number whose names are currently high lighting Legion progress in Texas and the nation. Local veterans were preparing for a large crowd.

Half the proceeds from the sale of these tickets will go to the current war call of the American Red Cross. At noon Tuesday tickets were still available and more guests were scheduled to be here, said Emmett Streetman, post leader.

Among the names appearing in the guest list are Sam Foreman, Department commander; Mrs. I. H. Bartz, state president of the Auxiliary; Dr. Rubin, manager of the Veterans Administration in Waco; R. H. Claypool, service officer, Veterans of Foreign Wars; Ed. Fenton, Veteran's State Service Officer; DeWitt Kirby, National Service Officer; Harry Rather, State Adjutant; Ed Riedel, Past Department Commander; George Betts, director, Veterans State Service Office; Douglas Sontag, 11th District Commander.

The American Legion, the national organization of the American veterans of the Great War, originated in Paris from March 15 to March 17, 1919. A thousand officers and men met in the French capital as delegates from all units of the American Expeditionary Forces. The Paris meeting selected the name of the organization and declared its principles.

On May 8 to 10, 1919, in St. Louis a similar meeting to that of the original one held in Paris confirmed and endorsed the declarations first made. A constitution in conformity to the Paris declarations was adopted.

The purpose of the Legion and the principles for which it stands are outlined in the preamble to its national constitution adopted at St. Louis and stand out today in a world torn by war for the second time within 25 years and are worthy of repeated publication. They are as follows:

"For God and country we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred per cent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in the Great War; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, State and Nation; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom, and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our mutual helpfulness."

The Cameron post of the American Legion is No. 9, founded in Texas and is named for Edwin Hardy, son of the late T. F. Hardy, and who died during the war.

Photos Service Men Requested for USO

To supplement the service flag in the USO building photos of men in service are requested, it was announced here Saturday by Mrs. R. B. Rylander, member of the reception committee at the hall.

These photos will be collected each Saturday night. Parents of men and women in service are urgently requested to bring photos. These pictures will be posted in the show windows of the building used for the USO activities and the space allotted will accommodate many photos.

Hill has three brothers and three sisters in the service. Before enlisting in the Army Lt. Hill was engaged in the cattle business and lived in Cameron.

Couple Here Remarry Following Divorce Two Years Ago

A wedding of unusual interest occurred in Austin Saturday, March 11, 1944, when Mrs. Merle Holder and Emory Holder, Gunner's Mate 3rd Class, United States Navy, were remarried after more than two years divorced.

Mrs. Holder is the former Miss Merle Dodson, pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dodson of Cameron. Mr. Holder was born and reared at San Gabriel. They were first married on March 14, 1940, and were divorced a year later in 1941.

Holder enlisted in the navy following separation from his wife and has been at sea for more than two years on the battleship Maryland.

The romance was renewed upon his return and they were quietly married in Austin Saturday night. Staff Sgt. John B. Dodson, Army Air Corps and stationed at Randolph Field, brother of the bride, and Miss Minnie Siegmund of Thrall, were the attendants and only witnesses. Mr. and Mrs. Holder were married in Taylor in 1940.

After a wedding trip of a week Mrs. Holder will return to Cameron and he will rejoin his ship and the fleet. They have a three year old son, Michael.

Mrs. Holder is one of three daughters in the family. Mrs. Nadine Favish whose husband is in the navy and aboard a transport in the Pacific, and Mrs. Loraine Nelson now with her husband in Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Marecek of Rosebud were business visitors in Cameron Thursday.

Serving Our Wounded IN ARMY EVACUATION HOSPITALS

You saw, perhaps, the story of the Army Evacuation Hospital at work behind the battle fronts in a recent issue of Life. If you are a gas refrigerator owner, the picture showing a "Servel" in use providing refrigeration for safe storage of a good supply of blood must have been interesting. It is part of the equipment of our well supplied and equipped evacuation hospital units. It is one reason why gas refrigerators are not now available.

BUILT FOR LONG LIFE

THE GAS REFRIGERATOR NEEDS LITTLE CARE

Other than cleaning and defrosting, the Gas Refrigerator needs little care to make it last. This is because the gas refrigerator has no moving parts to wear and need repairing or replacing.

In cleaning the gas refrigerator see that the durable outside surface is not scratched with finger rings, utensils or an abrasive cleaner. Usually it can be cleaned with a damp cloth. Occasionally it may be necessary to use a mild soap.

Clean shelves with any good soap and water. The interior porcelain finish should be cleaned with a lukewarm soda solution.

To keep the refrigerator operating at high efficiency it should be defrosted at regular intervals, and preferably during late evening hours.

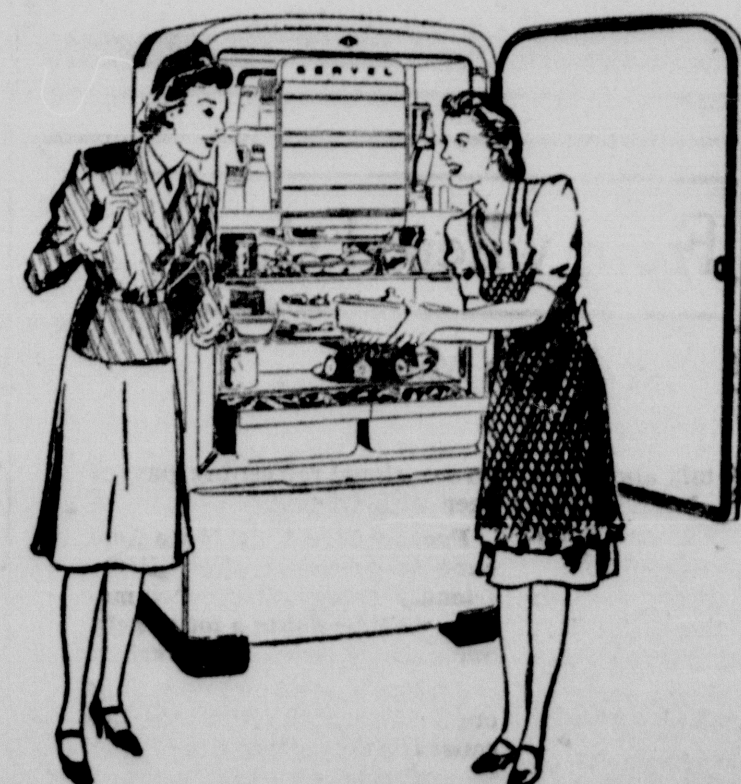

OWNERS ARE GLAD THEY HAVE ONE TODAY

Most important in getting full and complete satisfaction out of a gas refrigerator is proper storage of food. Above chart shows correct locations for various types of food. Tear it out and keep for reference.

Whatever their original reason for selecting a gas refrigerator, thousands of owners on Lone Star lines most certainly can be satisfied they've got one today. They are assured of low-cost, trouble-free, noiseless refrigeration for the duration, and a long time after.

BUY WAR BONDS

★ Do your part to win the war. Keep on buying bonds. When the war is over and the peace is won they'll come in handy for those who are planning to own an automatic gas refrigerator with no moving parts.

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

You hear a lot of talk about morale these days... but have you found many people who knew exactly what "morale" was?

Well, I was thumbing through my scrap book the other day, and I came on this verse I'd like to pass on to you...

It's the lift you get from a friendly smile...

A brand new hat in a jaunty style...

A letter from home that the post-man brings...

Morale is a lot of little things.

Isn't it so? Morale is just a lot of little things. A flower in your button hole, a word of greeting, an occasional refreshing glass of beer with friends.

From where I sit, if we take care to preserve these little friendly things that boost morale, we'll be doing a lot to help our country in its time of crisis.

And we'll boost morale among our soldiers at the front, too. Because it's these "important little things" that they look forward to returning to.

Cpl. Louis Bienvenu of North Camp Hood, visited his wife in Cameron over the week end. She will be remembered as the former Louise Waterson.

RAIN

At 3 p. m., today the weather forecast was easy to make. Even a psychonurosis 4-F who has just escaped the draft could tell what was happening. The Indian book says that when it is raining water is leaking out of the sky and falling upon the ground.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Haddox of Hearne were guests in the home of her mother, Mrs. A. N. Weems over the week end.

Tech Sgt. Howard Gailbreath of Camp White, Oregon is in Cameron on furlough visiting his many friends and relatives.

30 YEARS OF INDUSTRIALIZING TEXAS by TEXANS

Texas is a vital force in America's war effort today because of the splendid job Texans have been doing for the past 30 years... working together in meeting the challenge of industrial opportunities! During these years, the Texas Power & Light Company has been working with business, industrial and civic leaders, encouraging the location of new factories to utilize local supplies of raw materials to give employment to local labor and to provide a more balanced income for all.

LAYING THE FOUNDATION

By pioneering the development of transmission-line electric service in 1912, Texas Power & Light Company, founded by Texans and manned by Texans, supplied an essential factor for industrial growth of the State. Transmission lines brought ample, dependable, low-cost electric power service to cities, towns and villages alike... and into the sparsely settled rural areas... opening wide the door of industrial opportunity for all. This Company today, through its 10,000 miles of transmission and distribution lines, serves 445 cities, towns and communities, of which 298 had no electric service prior to the arrival of the Company's lines.

Since its organization, this Company has been closely identified with practically every phase of industrial development in Texas.

TEXTILE INDUSTRY

Factories to utilize Texas cotton... long a dream of industrial-minded Texans... had first consideration after World War I. The Texas Power & Light Company took the lead... sending its officials on tours of textile centers to gain first-hand knowledge of the problems involved in "textilizing Texas"... gathering data as to what Texas had to offer textile mill operators... using much of its advertising to stimulate local and national interest in Texas as a new textile center... publishing a monthly magazine, Texas Opportunities, to continuously set forth the outstanding advantages Texas afforded textile mill operators... conducting groups of New England mill owners, bankers and investors on tours of Texas cities and towns. Within a year after these activities were started, nine new textile mills were organized in Texas!

DAIRY INDUSTRY

Then followed development of the dairy industry... to provide daily cash income for Texas farmers, regular employment for Texas workers, and much added value to Texas manufactured products. Again, the Texas Power & Light Company actively led, coordinating the efforts of civic leaders, county agents, and farmer groups in (1) stimulating milk production on thousands of farms to attract large milk processing plants; and (2) organizing local groups or interesting out-of-state companies in establishing and operating such plants. Within eighteen months, Texas was literally dotted with dairies, cheese factories, evaporated milk plants and other types of milk products establishments.

As far back as 1926, the Texas Power & Light Company compiled a report on the possibilities of East Texas iron ore. Through the years this Company continued, almost single-handedly in the face of constant discouragement, to press for the establishment of facilities to utilize these abundant iron ore deposits.

When the war emergency emphasized the need for iron and steel, this Company's long-time efforts bore fruit. The Lone Star Steel Company... pioneering in its field... was organized, and is now completing one of the largest blast furnaces in the world, at Daingerfield, Texas.

Thus, a new industry was born in Texas... born today in the nation's hour of need.

During this same period, this Company has cooperated with local Chambers of Commerce in the development of other industries, such as glass factories, cottonseed-products plants, paper mills and box factories, packing plants, egg-breaking plants, cement mills, garment factories, and scores of smaller industries. Thus, Texas has acquired a balanced industrial growth with emphasis on the utilization of farm products.

In cooperation with Texas County Agents, Texas A. & M. College, Texas Tech, and all other agencies working for the betterment of Texas agriculture... the Texas Power & Light Company has conducted countless tests and experiments for the purpose of improving the quality and adding to the sum total of Texas farm products. At the same time, the Company's engineers have constantly cooperated in developing new industrial uses of these farm products... bringing closer together the farm and factory.

Cottonseed products... sweet potato culture and processing... dehydration... frozen foods... poultry raising and livestock breeding... the care and handling of dairy products are among the notable fields in which these efforts have been singularly beneficial.

Ready for Tomorrow

This Company, continuing its leadership, is planning for the industrial expansion which must follow the war... is ready to go strongly forward, helping with the greater industrialization of a greater Texas. Our experience gained through almost a third of a century of pioneering in industrial research; our records compiled through painstaking efforts; and our trained personnel are now, as in the past, at the service of communities large and small in the area we serve, to expedite their industrial-development programs. This Company has more than ample facilities to fully meet the expanding power requirements of this, the fastest growing industrial area in America!
